Membership Interests and Volunteer Sheet

The Berry Courthouse Conservation and Museum Committee is dedicated to the preservation, care and upkeep of the Historic Berry Courthouse for the Berry Community to enjoy.

This involves a large number of volunteers to assist the Committee in these tasks including with the gardens and the Works Committee (building maintenance and repair and other ownership matters) as well as the Management Committee, rentals, functions and events plus many more. You can assist as a volunteer member in these matters or others. Here is a list of things that you may wish to volunteer to assist with. It is not an exclusive list so if you have an interest or expertise or experience in another area then please add that to this.

- Assisting with the gardens.
- Assisting with the Works Committee matters
- Assist in organising functions and events for members and the community
- Helping with catering for functions and events
- Joining the Management committee to oversee all these items
- Assisting by taking minutes and compiling agendas and reports where necessary
